Kids Pack Theatre At Party

Two thousand children, from Colma to the county line, packed the Daly City theater, Monday, at the annual Christmas party given for children of grammar school age.

Young hands applauded Miss Inez Horn's Children's Band and Spanish unit; young voices cheered their own Indians of Rhythm and there were juvenile 'ohs' and 'ahs' when Jed Buell's midgits appeared on the screen in "Terror of Tiny Town." There was a smile on every face, too, as boys and girls received a present of candy and fruit as they left the theater. It was the consensus of opinion among Daly City's youngsters that the party was a great success.

Among the guest artists were also Dell Raymond, local singer, and Mrs. Schlappi, who read "Colonial Christmas."

Daly City police and Fire departments handled the crowd of children, who were exceptionally well-behaved, and it took but twenty-five minutes after the show was over for the children to file through the doors and receive their candy.

Conducted by the WPA Recreation department and sponsored by the Recreation committee, the City council, and many social and service clubs, this year's party was the result of weeks of work and planning. A committee which included Mrs. E. Cavagnaro, Mrs. A. Chesney, Mrs. W. Lewis, Mrs. M. Linden, Mrs. A. Eason and Mrs. M. Boyle, spent ten days contacting Daly City merchants for their donations for the party. Contributions which were collected in this way, and other contributions which were sent to A. J. Bodien, who had charge of the finances, totaled $142.30.

Cost of the Daly City theater for the free show ($125) was paid by a local public spirited citizen. Because of this donation a considerable sum of money will be left over from this year's affair. This surplus is to be banked as a Community Christmas Party Fund and will be used to start off arrangements for a Christmas party in 1940.

Donations were received from Fathers Forum, Veteran Firemen's

"Indians" to Play For More Events

With a record of ten shows in the last two weeks, Lembi's Indians of Rhythm continued to ride the crest of popularity today with the announcement that three new engagements have been added to their long list of public appearances for the near future.

Last night the Jefferson swingers appeared at the Firemen's Ball, Bayshore City; tonight the Jewish Old Ladies home will hear their program; and the WPA Recreation department of San Jose has contacted the Indians, asking them to make an appearance at the Civic Auditorium there in January.

Christmas, 1939

"Vain is the chiming of forgotten bells,
That the wind sways above a ruined shrine"—

Events in Europe and, yes, even those at home, make the above commentary more than appropriate at this Christmas season which commemorates the Christchild's gift of peace and love to all mankind.

We may go through the holiday season much as usual—gifts for loved ones, tinsled trees, parties, innumerable gaities. We may mouth the old, beloved hymns which tell of "peace on earth, good will to men," BUT we shall not be able to shut out entirely the knowledge that on this Christmas day men are killing each other on the battlefields of Europe, that in our own nation men and women are starving, sacrificed to our own blind stupidity, that we have millions of unemployed.

Since we cannot forget facts so obvious, so perilously close to home, let us resolve at this Christmas tide that any fighting we do shall be peaceful "fighting" for the ideal of a world that enjoys enduring peace, a world governed by justice and charity toward all. The lives of our countrymen cannot preserve democracy; but the thoughts of our countrymen, welded and staunch in the opinion that this nation shall not be drawn into chaos, can save these United States from the horror of armed conflict and in addition leave us in a position to aid our neighbors across the seas when hate and murder have again exhausted them.

Hearing of Mrs. Lillian Bonafetti, 150 West Moltke street, on a charge of transporting narcotics has been continued until Thursday by Justice of the Peace W. H. Clay.

Mrs. Bonafetti, twice previously convicted of narcotics charges in San Mateo county, was arrested last month by state agents who reported finding a quantity of morphine in her car.

Colma In Miniature At Anchor Drug Company

The Christmas spirit is portrayed in a novel manner this year by the Anchor Drug company, Mission and Market streets, with a miniature replica of Colma's business district and famous landmarks.

Made by Leo Dovolo, local artist who first won recognition by his work on Colleen Moore's half-million-dollar doll house, the facade extends three-fourths of the way around the upper part of the store. The display is lit by colored lights which flash on and off, and includes detailed models of Holy Angels church, Jefferson Union high school, the Colma post office and many business houses.

Fred Biagini, manager of the Anchor Drug, extends a cordial invitation to the public to view this unusual exhibition.

Revise Schedule Of Busses

Several important changes in Daly City's bus schedules to effect faster and more comprehensive service to all parts of the city were put into operation today by Bus Superintendent Julius F. Castelan.

Extending the area served by the busses, the new route will include the Vista Grande tract in its run. Starting at Mission and Market streets in the south end of Daly City, the busses will proceed northerly along Mission to Westlake avenue, westerly along Westlake to San Diego avenue, northerly along San Diego avenue to Hillcrest drive, easterly along Hillcrest drive to Mission street, to Crocker avenue, east on Crocker avenue to Hanover, north on Hanover street to Acton, to Sickles avenue, to Alemany boulevard, to Junipero Serra, northerly along Junipero Serra boulevard to St. Francis circle, which will be the point of connection to the "K" car. The "K" car operates on a 2½ minute schedule.

On the return trip the busses will operate along the same route until reaching San Diego and Westlake avenue, thence westerly on Westlake to Junipero Serra boulevard, southerly to San Pedro avenue, northerly to Market and Mission streets, the original starting point.

Operating every twenty minutes during rush hours and every forty minutes during the remainder of the day, with busses running until midnight on Saturdays, the system will now employ an extra driver, Don B. Rigler, 123 Vista Grande avenue. Rigler has lived in Daly City for many years, is a member of the fire department, Company No. 2, and has had eighteen months' experience as a stage bus driver.

Complete time schedules for the new busses may be found on page 12 of this week's issue of The Record.

Complete time listing of busses will be distributed with the January water bills.

Flying Santa Claus

This year's Santa Claus to New England lighthouse keepers will be Edgar Rowe Snow, historian of Boston Harbor, who annually flies from Boone Island, Maine, to Provincetown, Massachusetts, dropping packages for the isolated lighthouse stations.

Marihuana Verdict Proves Hasty

Two lost San Francisco police officers, wandering far afield from their appointed paths of duty, caused a flurry of excitement here this week when they reported that they had discovered large quantities of marihuana growing wild in Daly City.

Not realizing that they had left their own San Francisco beat behind and were patrolling by mistake in Daly City, the two stern guardians of law and order noticed that occupants of houses at 398 Bellevue avenue and 199 Oliver street were using for Christmas decorations some tall, green weeds with flame colored blossoms.

Concluding at once that they had found the evil marihuana plant, the two officers hastened to inform the world.

And the world, taking immediate notice, published an article in a downtown paper stating that marihuana bushes had been found in Daly City "thriving after the rains."

Meanwhile a branch of the festive green was under close examination at the Daly City police department, where officials stated that although they disliked to spoil a good newspaper story, in their opinion the stuff was not, and never would be, the evil marihuana plant.

P. S. Local Christmas decorating proceeding as per usual.

Routine Business Occupies Court

Routine business occupied Judge Wade H. Clay's court on Friday, with seven traffic offenders given fines ranging from $1 to $5.

George Washington Guglielmo, 33 Sadowa street, and Oliver Olson, 1214 Folsom street, each paid $5 for speeding. Fred Robert Knoll, 56 Goethe, was given a suspended fine of $2.50 for speeding; and Gerald F. Golden, 340

Outline Plans For Hall

The movement for a Community Center gained considerable headway Monday evening at a meeting of citizens and representatives of eighteen local organizations, held at the City hall.

The name "Community Center Association" was adopted for the group movement.

Committees were formed to investigate the cost of the Vista Grande school site at Vista Grande and Mission streets, and to ascertain the approximate cost of a building. H. G. King was appointed head of the building costs committee and Bruce Boynton to head the property costs committee.

Otto G. Hinterman, associate to City Architect W. H. Toepke, who helped plan the City hall, passed plans and drawings around, and gave a short talk on the details that go into a project of this kind.

The feasibility of a bond issue and WPA participation was discussed as a means of financing, and the committee was instructed to calculate the actual cost in taxes to the public.

Melford Battye was elected vice-chairman to assist chairman Raymond Brulez and secretary Ethel Dorn. The next meeting will be held January 15, at the City hall.

Give Encouragement To South End Project

An encouraging letter promising to expedite final action on Daly City's south end street improvement application was received here this week by City Engineer Julius F. Castelan, from WPA headquarters in Washington.

Addressed to Representative J. Z. Anderson, the letter stated that every effort would be made to speed up the project.

Work on the re-surfacing of Brunswick street is scheduled to begin Tuesday, December 26, according to the city engineer.

Building applications were filed this week for two homes, one costing $3500 and the other $4000.

New Manager For Colma Bank

Appointment of John Ferrari as manager of the Colma branch of the Bank of America was announced today by President L. M. Giannini. He will succeed C. Cattori, veteran Colma banker, who will retire on January 1 under the bank's retirement plan, but continue his contact under the bank as a member of the Colma Branch Advisory Board.

Ferrari has been engaged for nearly twenty years in banking activities in San Francisco, starting with the old Fugazi bank as bookkeeper and later advancing to the position of assistant cashier at Bank of America's Clay-Montgomery branch.

Cattori has for twenty years been a prominent figure in the Colma business community. He Cypress Circle 14, United Ancient Order of Druids, held its annual Christmas party, presided over by Mrs. Alma Garabaldi, arch druidess, Wednesday evening in Colombo hall, Colma. Each member present was given a gift from the circle. The committee in charge of the evening was Mesdames Josephine Varni, Estelle Packwood, and Margaret McDermot.

Mrs. A. Hollingsworth, Ed Weisenburger, Colma, Mrs. M. Hanselman, Daly City, and Mrs. Rose Fredricks, San Francisco, motored to Santa Clara, Friday evening, to attend the installation of officers of Santa Clara Chapter No. 195, Order of Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bruno, San Francisco, are the proud parents of twin boys born Sunday, December 10, at St. Joseph hospital. The mother and babies are reported getting along fine. Mrs. Bruno is the former Ida Silicani of Colma.

The Seventeenth district meeting of the parent teachers association was held Friday in Burlingame. Mrs. Raymond Lagomarsino and Mrs. A. Hollingsworth attended as representatives from the Colma unit.

Mrs. C. E. Lowe and Mrs. J. H. Price attended the Denver University Alumni banquet at Veneto's, San Francisco, Wednesday evening. The banquet was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Duncan of the University of Denver.

Mrs. Stella Jensen, Supreme Guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters, returned home Friday from a month's inspection tour of Job's Daughter Bethels in the states of Nebraska, South Dakota, Kansas, and Colorado. While in Denver, Colorado, Mrs. Jensen instituted a new Grand Guardian Council.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Balletto celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Saturday, December 2, at a party held in their home at 163 Moltke street. The guests of honor received lovely gifts and congratulations from the many friends who were present.

Mrs. Rose Cresso of Colma entertained Mrs. V. Capurro and daughter, Florine, Saturday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Frank Garabaldi entertained her bridge club Friday evening at a Christmas party in her home. The guests exchanged gifts and enjoyed delightful refreshments. Those who attended were: Mesdames George Volkman, Fritz Lagomarsino, Louis J. Varni, James Packwood, Douglas Morgan, Herman Lorenz, and A. Benassini.

Mrs. Frank Risso and daughter, Frances, of San Francisco, spent an enjoyable Friday afternoon visiting with Mrs. Emma Redcay of Colma.

Lieutenant Colombo Benedetti of the Colma Fire department was treated at the Junipero Serra hospital Monday for an injury received while attending a fire in Colma. The injury was not serious and he was allowed to return home. The fire destroyed a house on D street owned by Frank Marshall, and was occupied at the time by Mr. and Mrs. Creste Roche and their two children.

Giudi Marchetti, Pat Camazan, Louis Guisti, Betty Camazan, Sylvio Perata and Grace Gioni enjoyed a delightful motor trip to Santa Cruz, Sunday, where they visited Charles Camazan, formerly of Colma but now residing in Santa Cruz.

Joe Rochetta, Hillside boulevard, is the proud owner of a 1939 Plymouth sedan purchased from Frank Marshall.

The average age of passenger cars in use in the United States is estimated at 4½ years.

"Vanities" Open at Geary Christmas Night

"The Sixty Most Beautiful Girls in the World"—in person!

That's the treat in store for San Francisco theatre-goers when Producer Earl Carroll brings his latest "Vanities" to the Geary theatre for a strictly limited two week engagement beginning Christmas night, December 25, with shows New Year's Eve.

This is the first time San Franciscans ever have had an opportunity to see a world's premiere of a "Vanities" before its presentation on Broadway. In addition to the "Sixty Most Beautiful Girls in the World" who will be seen for the first time outside of Hollywood following their sensational eight month triumph at the Earl Carroll theatre there, Earl Carroll will present talent from all over the world, when the "Vanities" opens at the Geary theatre on Christmas night.

The famous Professor Lamberti and his unique act will be a featured attraction, as will Lela Moore's sensational "Dance of the Lovers." Ygor and Tanya, dancing stars of "Rose of Washington Square," Johnny Woods, one of New York's most talented mimics and emcees, singing stars Reginald Craig, Jerry Lester and Susan Miller, and Beryl Wallace are principals who will be seen in the two act, thirty-five scene lavish stage production.

Daughters of Israel To Hold Public Whist

Mrs. Bessie Gimov will be chairman of a whist party to be held tomorrow evening at 67 Los Banos avenue. The affair is sponsored by the Daughters of Israel.

There will be a cash prize, in addition to other awards. Playing begins at 8:30 p. m. and the public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.

EVA LEGALLIENNE STARS

If Eva LeGallienne never played any other play than "Hedda Gabler" her name would be emblazoned upon the escutcheon of artistic endeavor as an example of the highest art in histrionic expression.

Her "Hedda Gabler" is a classic in portraiture, interpretation and logical reasoning, as finely limned as anything ever seen upon the American stage and one that will be worthy of a niche in the gallery of famous stage personages. Her "Hedda Gabler" will rank with the "Becky Sharp" of Mrs. Fiske, the "Sappho" of Nether-sole, the "Magda" of Duse and the "Phedre" of Bernhardt—five great artists in their five great plays.

Miss LeGallienne, supported by her excellent company, of which Earle Larimore is the principal player, will occupy the stage of the Curran theater during Christmas week, commencing Monday evening, December 25, and will terminate on Sunday evening, December 31—New Year's Eve.

Christmas night, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings and Wednesday matinee will be devoted to "Hedda Gabler." On Tuesday evening and Saturday matinee "The Master Builder" will be given.

Ko-Kets-Klub Holds First Christmas Dinner

Members of the Ko-Kets-Klub enjoyed their first Christmas dinner together, Thursday, at Monaco's in the International Settlement. Following dinner and community singing, the group toured Chinatown shops.

Present were Barbara Bales, Eleanor Cameron, Kay Core, Valerie Horan, Edith Johnson, Thelma Odiard, Vera Premenko, Bunny Ray, Louise Savelly and Elayne Wadiker.

Mission Creamery Establishes Farm

Assuring greater health protection to its customers, Mission Creamery has recently established its own milk farm, stocking it with a large herd of Guernsey and Jersey cows.

Located at Thirty-sixth avenue and Juniper in San Mateo, the farm operates with the latest modern equipment and sanitation methods. Mission Creamery milk has one of the lowest bacteria counts in the entire county, the management pointed out. The public is cordially invited to inspect the farm at any time.

Both raw and pasteurized milk are now bottled by the creamery in San Mateo. Milk may be picked up there or at the local office, 6235 Mission street, or be delivered at the door. Mission Creamery also handles raw pastry cream.

News of Daly City's Organizations

General Pershing Sale Successful

Mrs. Ilda Marquis, president of General Pershing PTA, today expressed her appreciation of the donations to the food and rummage sale held by the unit last week.

The sale was an unqualified success, according to Mrs. Marquis, and a great deal of delicious home-canned food was sold.

Also an unqualified success was the Christmas party for General Pershing school children, Friday, with Mrs. Marge Calvin as chairman. Santa Claus and Christmas tree delighted the children. Teachers and children furnished the entertainment for the affair, after which refreshments were served to the visiting mothers.

Mrs. Marquis, accompanied by Mrs. Anne Lucas, attended the Seventeenth district meeting in Burlingame, Friday.

General Pershing school closed Friday for the Christmas holidays.

Funeral Services For Jack Johnson

Funeral services for John Henry ("Jack") Johnson, 55, owner of a Daly City drayage firm, who died December 12 after a long illness, were held Thursday morning from the W. C. Lasswell and company chapel with requiem mass at 9:30 a. m. at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Lawndale.

Johnson, who had resided here for 11 years, making his home at 425 Wellington avenue, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Genevieve Johnson; six sons, John, Albert, Russell, Warren, Robert and Melvin Johnson, and five daughters, Carol Ann, Marilyn and Dolores Johnson, Mrs. Genevieve Wilcox and Mrs. Evelyn Walt.

Ostrich

HEADS UP, pedestrians! Don't be a traffic ostrich! Do you bury your head in coat collars and umbrellas during winter rains, fog and darkness?

Shorter days mean the peak rush hour traffic comes after nightfall. The Christmas shopping rush increases carelessness in jaywalking and crossing streets against the lights.

Yes, it's danger time for pedestrians... so watch your step. San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission.

The same old greeting but with renewed sincerity, "Merry Christmas and Abundant Happiness."

Santa Claus To Visit Eagles

Santa Claus, aided and abetted by a committee including William Bolger, Edmund Cavagnaro, A. J. Bodien and Bert Meritt, will appear at the Eagles hall tomorrow night to visit the kiddies of Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, F. O. E.

There will be presents for all, it is reported, and among other things Santa will distribute 180 pounds of candy. While the party starts at 8 p. m. Santa will not be expected until about 8:30.

Public Invited To Druid's Whist

Hillcrest Circle, No. 143, U. A. O. D., will sponsor a public whist party, Thursday, December 28, it was announced today. Starting at 8:30 p. m., the affair will feature a large assortment of prizes, including cash.

Chairmen of the affair are Mrs. Clara Poket and Violet Hauptli. The public is cordially invited.

Mothers Club Assists With Party

Our Lady of Perpetual Help school will close for the holidays tomorrow with a Christmas party for the children.

The Mothers club is assisting Sister Principal with the candy for the children and Sister Leo is coaching the children for the entertainment they will give. Refreshments will be served after the entertainment.

The parochial school will reopen January 4.

Marihuana Evil Discussed For PTA

Crocker Sew and Sew club held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Mildred Seiler, Thursday. Mrs. E. Evans, 71 Templeton avenue, won the doll at the Daly City theater, Saturday.

Mrs. Julia V. Jordan, Mrs. Mildred Seiler and Mrs. Orville D. Pauw represented the Crocker PTA at the Seventeenth district meeting in Burlingame, Friday.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Crocker PTA last week, Mrs. Virginia Davidson gave her report of the Seventeenth district CCPT November meeting, and Mrs. Julia V. Jordan read the report on the recent bazaar and gave a vote of thanks to members for their support.

Final plans were made for the children's Christmas party, held last Friday, under the supervision of Mrs. Florence Thorsen. The program centered around Christmas and papers on Christmas in the south were read by Conchita Morales and John Kinsey.

Walter R. Creighton, inspector for the State Division of Narcotic Enforcement, spoke on the evils of marihuana. Creighton spoke of the necessity of parents, teachers and school pupils cooperating to help stamp out the illicit use of the drug.

Marihuana, he stated, acts on the central nervous system, and causes the user to do acts of violence, and commit horrible and fantastic crimes.

Narcotics are always connected with crime and the underworld, he further pointed out, in their manufacture and sale, and in relation to the extent to which an addict will go to procure them.

Twelfth Installment

History of Fire Dept.

(Editor's Note: This is the twelfth installment of an informal history of the Daly City Fire department, dedicated to "those who serve—not for personal gain—but for the welfare of all.")

Through the cooperation of William J. C. Goldkuhl, E. W. Goldkuhl sr., and Edward W. Goldkuhl jr., authors, and the Daly City Record this interesting story is made available to the general public.)

In June 1922, at a meeting of Company Number 4, Daly City Fire department, it was voted that each member secure a cap, shirt, tie and belt to be used as a uniform at the joint picnic. This was the start of the present day uniform in the Daly City Fire department.

The Fire Department's civic pride was evident in many signs. A motion was made by Kingsland and seconded by Rhinehart and on July 11, 1922, it was voted by the Fire Department to have each Company donate five dollars a month toward a fund to advertise the city of Daly City.

At the suggestion of Assistant Chief, Hansen, on September 13, 1922, the City Trustees took into consideration the plan to buy Chief Kennedy a Ford run-about for his use in connection with the Fire Department. The latter part of 1922 found new equipment being added to the Companies; two hundred feet of hose was given to Company Number 3, new fire chemicals to Company Number 1 and several pieces of apparatus to the other companies.

As a further example of the Daly City Fire department's civic influence during the year 1923, George Augustien was nominated from its ranks for school trustee, and through the support of the members was elected to the position. This trend of providing city officials was evident all through the history of the department. Practically every city official at one time or another was connected in some capacity with the Firemen. It seemed that the proving ground for the citizens of Daly City was their own Fire Department.

Form Auxiliary For Fire Co. No. 1

Extend Classes In Citizenship

James Ferguson, principal of Jefferson Union high school, today announced the extension of classes in Americanization and citizenship training into the neighboring community of Brisbane. Commencing January 3, a class in Americanization and naturalization will be held every Wednesday from 7 to 9 p. m. in the Brisbane grammar school.

During the last four years, these evening classes have met with a favorable response here and since the opening of the fall term the naturalization class has been unusually successful, with at least twelve of its members becoming citizens, according to Mr. Ferguson. The naturalization class, as well as evening classes in Americanization, English, bookkeeping, typing, stenography, mimeographing, machine calculation and art metal will be resumed at Jefferson January 2.

Everyone in the community over eighteen years may attend without cost. These classes are planned so that new students and interested persons may enter in January.

ELECTRICAL GIFTS!

Isn't it a grand and glorious moment of triumph when a Christmas gift wins instant approval? Yes, indeed and especially when on the joyous day your gift is one of lasting worth that expresses your deepest sentiment and thoughtfulness. So it is again this year—your electrical dealer is displaying for your shopping approval a rich array of sparkling, magical, modern and useful electric appliances.

There are more than a hundred smart gifts that will delight the heart, bring a sparkle to the eye and serve as a reminder of your thoughtfulness for years to come. There are electrical gifts that will help preserve youth, help make entertaining easier and more enjoyable, or the always smart and practical perky electric clocks or dainty lamps. Your electrical dealer asks you to see the special display in his electric appliance section—all new and freshly unpacked. Remember this year for Smart Giving it is Electrical Gifts.

Summons to Establish Title

Action No. 30469

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of San Mateo.

Department No. One

S. A. CHAPPAT and LENA CHAPPAT, Plaintiffs vs. All persons claiming any interest in, or lien upon, the real property herein described or any part thereof, Defendants.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA:

To all persons claiming any interest in, or lien upon, the real property herein described or any part thereof, defendants, greeting:

You are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint of S. A. Chappat and Lena Chappat, plaintiffs, filed with the Clerk of the above-entitled Court and County, within three months after the first publication of this Summons, and to set forth what interest or lien, if any, you have in or upon that certain real property or any part thereof, situated in the County of San Mateo, State of California, particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point on the easterly line of the Bayshore Boulevard, formerly known as San Bruno Road and as Milliken Street, distant thereon 165 feet 8 inches southwesterly from the intersection thereof with the southwesterly line of Sunnydale Avenue, formerly known as Tobin Street, in the City and County of San Francisco; running thence northeasterly along said line of the Bayshore Highway 50 feet; thence leaving said line at a right angle southeasterly 105 feet 8 inches; thence at a right angle southwesterly 50 feet and thence at a right angle northwesterly 105 feet 8 inches to the point of beginning.

EXCEPTING, HOWEVER, that portion thereof lying within the boundaries of the City and County of San Francisco.

And you are hereby notified that, unless you so appear and answer, the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: That it be adjudged that the plaintiffs are the owners of said property in fee simple absolute; that their title to said property be established and quieted; that the Court ascertain and determine all estates, rights, titles, interests and claims in and to said property, and every part thereof, whether the same be legal or equitable, present or future, vested or contingent, and whether the same consists of mortgages or liens of any description; that plaintiffs recover their costs herein and have such other and further relief as may be met in the premises.

WITNESS my hand and the seal of this Court.

Dated October 9th, 1939.

DALY CITY FIRE COMPANIES MEET ON JEFFERSON DIAMOND

Starting in an early morning fog that made it practically impossible to see second base from the home plate, Daly City's Fire department, Companies No. 1, 4 and 5 against 2, 3 and 6, played softball with a barrel of beer at stake, Sunday, on the Jefferson diamond. Results: 14-6 in favor of 2-3-6. Final results: the barrel of beer to 2-3-6, and the bill for the beer to 1-4-5.

Tom Gaggero homed twice, Segale once, and Peterson once. Peterson arrived at the field during the fifth inning when 1-4-5 were at bat; immediately was put at the plate; swung at the first ball and went around for a homer.

The game was such a success that more games are planned for the future. Said Chief Andrew P. Chesney: "They're a grand bunch of boys."

"The Rains Came" Opens Tomorrow At Local Theatre

Hailed as one of the truly great motion pictures of all time, Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Rains Came," the sensational novel by Louis Bromfield, opens tomorrow at the Daly City theatre with Myrna Loy, Tyrone Power and George Brent sharing stellar honors.

This powerful story of human emotions at the breaking point and human lives at the climax, while the untamed forces of nature ure ravaged the earth, has been faithfully retold in this Twentieth Century-Fox film, in which all of Bromfield's colorful characters are brought to vivid life.

Myrna Loy, Tyrone Power and George Brent

Myrna Loy is seen as the amorous Lady Esketh, Tyrone Power has his most romantic role as Major Rama Safti, and George Brent plays the world-weary Tom Ransome.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Streets of New York," starring Jackie Cooper.

Final Rites For Lee Miller

Lee Miller, 1081 Hanover street, died last Monday in St. Francis hospital, San Francisco, after a two weeks' illness. He was a foreman at the Edwards Wire Rope company, South San Francisco, where he had been employed for 16 years. He had resided here for seven years.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Emily Miller; a daughter, Louise, and four brothers, Mark Miller of Oakland, Roger and Howard Miller of San Francisco, and Ralph Miller of Los Angeles.

Funeral services were held last Wednesday at the W. C. Lasswell and company chapel.

Rites Conducted For "Peanut Man"

"Joe, the peanut man," a familiar figure to motorists on Junipero Serra boulevard and a favorite with children, died of a heart attack last Monday.

Each day, from early morning until night, for more than fifteen years he had sold peanuts at his small roadside stand on Junipero Serra boulevard at Briggs street. He had a friendly word and smile for those who stopped to buy his wares but he never talked much about himself.

Authorities learned last week that his name was William Fairburn; that he resided at 62 Los Olivos avenue. They were informed that he was a native of New Zealand and a member of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Beyond that his life remains a mystery. He was not known to have any relatives in this vicinity.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday from the W. C. Lasswell and company chapel, with burial at Olivet Memorial Park.
